SATURDAY NOV 5, 2011
CABBAGETOWN PARK 11:00AM - 6:00PM

WELCOME

Hello Romp, Chomp, and Stompers. Welcome to our 9th annual Chomp & Stomp Festival. We have been working hard for the past 9 years to perfect our little neighborhood fundraiser and boy have we grown in the process. Just to show you how far we have come, our first Chili Cook-off had 20 individual chilis with about 900 attendees. This year we have 90 individual chilis, 30 restaurant chilis, 60 artists, 30 food vendors, 15 celebrity judges, and between 16,000 and 19,000 attendees!

Just so you know what to expect today, a typical Chomp Festival includes a romp through Cabbagetown, described as an easy, flat, 5K followed up with beer for breakfast for the hardy. The next step is to find that perfect spot at one of our 3 music stages for some bodacious bluegrass music that traveled from all over just to see you. At 12:30 the Chili Tasting Begins! Grab that spoon and dive down the Chili Rows. Are you going to hit individual chilis first or do you find it hard to resist the temptations of Restaurant Row?

Now to walk off all that chili, make sure to wander through our Artist Market that has as much Cabbagetown flavor as the chili. Don't miss Brussel Sprout Park where the stage is family friendly. New to the park is entertainment by our very own Zoo Atlanta and the Georgia Bubble guy just to name a few. Those little cabbageheads will be so excited they won't know what to do first. Don't forget to wander back to our main stage for the Cabbagetown games. The brussel sprout bobbing can be a bit competitive so stand back and be amazed. At 5pm, we announce the winners for both the individual and restaurant chilis.

Though it has been 9 years in the making, one thing has not changed. You are the one who brings the festivity to our little festival. Thank you Cabbagetown, neighbors, travelers, sponsors, local businesses, and volunteers! We thank you from the bottom of our chili bowls. See you next year for the 10th annual festival. I wonder what we will come up with next year. We can't wait!
